WHAT AM I TO DO? These syllables follow are unhappy but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Hillois man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids, but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order, an diarrhoea or constipation may be a symptom, or the reverse, alternating. There is often hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and bodily or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not to effect a cure Green's August Flower, it cost but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

COUNTRY GREENHORN.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY.

Useful for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Healing Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine.

The Linerman needs it in case of accident.

The Housewife needs it for general family use.

The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench.

The Miner needs it in case of emergency.

The Pioneer can't go along without it.

The Farmer needs it in his house and his stable and stock.

The Stock-keeper needs it to keep his stock in good condition.

The Stock-grower needs it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble.

The Huckleberry-farmer needs it to keep his life a round of accidents and dangers.

The Huckle-banana needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers of life.

The Merchant needs it about his money.
